"Building Lasting Peace" World Community Theme

With the belief that freedom and prosperity can be assured any nation only as it is assured all, United Church Women have set Friday, November 4th, as World Community Day and for its theme have chosen the petition that is on the hearts of the multitude, "Give Us, this day Our Daily Bread."

Observance of World Community Day will be held in the Episcopal Church at 10 A. M. Guest speaker will be Mr. Walter Parr, who is connected with the American-Korean Fund.

The church, for many years has been trying to answer that prayer as it sent out missions to take not only spiritual food, but the help and "know how" to produce more and greater variety of physical food. The church has long had its own program to relieve human need. But that need was so great that it never reached far enough. Nor, when our government joined to help, was it possible to meet all the overwhelming problems of want in the world. The only solution seemed for nations to act together. Thus in 1953, 44 nations agreed to work untidily for freedom from want and the Food and Agriculture Organization was born.

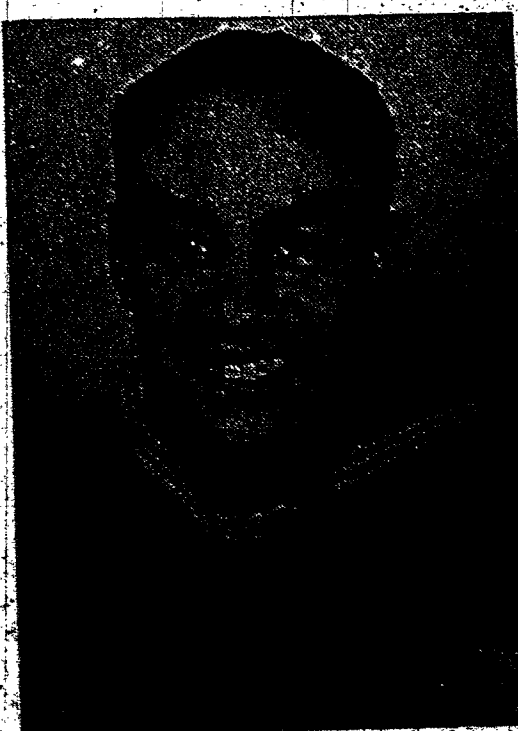

Because United Church Women have such faith in the high purposes of FAO, they have spotlighted it for study in this 1955 nationwide observance of World Community Day, hoping to draw to it a greater understanding and support of our American people. And through it, as through the study of the World Health Organization last year, and UNICEF and other U. N. agencies at other times, they hope to broaden the knowledge of the scope of the work of the United Nations as it reaches out to aid mankind.

There are also immediate needs to be met, the hungry to be fed, the refugees to be clothed. Offerings will be gathered nationwide. Here everyone can share in gratitude for the abundance in our great country. One of the most urgent call is for clothes for men and boys, or yards of denim to make work clothes for them. A suit, shirt, overcoat, can make the difference between a delinquent and a useful citizen with a job. These and the ever needed clothing for women and children, together with money to pay for handling, can bring you a peace nearer peace.

"Your dollars and your gift of clothing will become peace tools, and you who give, peace makers."

Opposes Taxpayers Footing Bill For Patients Able To Pay For Treatments

Maurice J. Artigues, of Bay St. Louis, was the guest speaker at the Rotary luncheon Wednesday and spoke on the state charity hospital program in Hancock County.

Artigues is one of the three members of the hospital board for Hancock County, which members are appointed by the governor. He explained that the board has as its chief duty, the approval and disbursement of state funds used in Hancock County for charity patients admitted to the local hospital. And in order for a local hospital to qualify for such funds from the state, it has to meet certain qualifications such as adequate X-ray equipment, and the local doctors must volunteer their services free of charge for all charity patients.

"It is my main purpose in this talk," Artigues said, "to familiarize the people of Hancock County with this charity program, and it has been my purpose as a member of the state hospital board for this County to see that the needy of this county should be given hospitalization free of charge. But I regret to say, that there have been many instances where people of this county have secured free services, and the doctors have given free medical assistance to many people who are well able to pay for these services."

"The law governing our duties," he continued, "states that two reputable people of the county, together with the admitting doctor can sign an application for patients to receive charity assistance, but in checking through the records, you will find that there are only a few individuals of this county who have signed all of the applications for the patients who have been treated. I definitely do not approve of 3 or 4 people being the judge of who is in need of free treatment in this county."

Artigues said further that the law states that any two members of the three member County Hospital Board can approve the treatment rendered in order to secure state aid, and that patients may be admitted as emergency patients without approval.

"But," Artigues stated, "all of the patients who have been allowed to enter as emergency patients in the past could not have been emergency patients, and the patients have been submitted to me, as a member of the board, after the treatment had been rendered and I have only approved one."

"I have found some applications for persons who did not need charity treatment," he continued, "and I have not signed the approvals, but these patients were approved without my consent."

In closing, Artigues stated, "my chief concern is that enough people of the county know this fund is available and those who need it should have it, but I am opposed to the taxpayers of this county and state paying for treatment for patients who are well able to afford hospitalization, and I sincerely believe that in order to secure free treatment, and in deference to the local doctors who have given their services free of charge to such patients, there should be more than a very few people of this county to recommend needy persons for such treatment."

The regular monthly meeting of the St. Joseph Academy Mothers' Club will be held Tuesday, November 8, at 3:15 p. m., in the library of the Convent. All members are urged to be present.

Inch By Inch

Monday, October 31st, was Halloween, and Monday night the proverbial "spooks" passed up and down the streets of Bay St. Louis in drives, carrying their bags to the front door of nearly every house in the city, ringing door-bells and slamming on the front doors with the familiar sound of "trick or treat"—little "spooks," mediocre size "spooks," and big size "spooks," but it was quite noticeable this year that there was a number of "spooks" of the colored variety who knocked on the front doors of the white citizens of our community. These "spooks" varied in sizes from small to large.

This, in our community, seems to be a new approach. The past custom has been for them to come to the back door; the past custom has not been for them to come to the white homes with their "trick or treat," but should have been confined to their own race quarters. We certainly feel that no white "spook" visited the door of the colored. It should work the same for the colored.

But with the new teachings of integration, and with the confusion of northern propagandists, inch by inch they are trying to change our customs—even if it takes a mask on Halloween to do it!

Jim Eastland Carries The Fight

The following article is a news story which has appeared in the press of the nation for the past few days, which every Mississippian and every southerner should read and digest, and we re-print it here as an editorial.

Sen. Eastland (D-Miss.) wants a commission, supported by state money and tax-exempt private funds, to fight what he calls "the rising crescendo of vicious propaganda against the South."

In a statement Saturday, Eastland said much of the propaganda is "inspired and financed by Communist front and race-minded groups."

Eastland, chairman of the Senate Internal Security subcommittee, said, in part:

"Tremendous sums of money, much of it tax-exempt, are being thrown into a vast program of propaganda and outright falsehood to misrepresent Southern views and conditions in the South."

"Millions of fair-minded Americans in other regions, denied access to the truth, are being hoodwinked, misled, and seized by this coming campaign."

"The cumulative effect is to undermine and destroy the sovereignty of the Southern states. And when state sovereignty falls in the South, it automatically falls elsewhere."

"The Southern states therefore not only have an unchallengeable legal right, but a clearly defined constitutional duty, to use every available means to counteract this attack and defend state sovereignty."

"Many segments of the American press has been infiltrated by agents of the anti-South groups and... have become willing tools of the propagandists."

"Other segments... have become passive unwitting dupes."

"But still a third segment... finds itself engulfed by a flood of propaganda, distortions and untruths from one side; a trickle of fact from the other."

"It should be the purpose of the Southern commission to place the sword of truth in the hands of this last, sadly besieged segment of the American press."

"Southern people have been pushed far enough."

The tireless, never-ending fight that our vigorous Senior Senator is making against the well-greased propaganda experts of the Communist line of the North, East, and West in their hate campaign against the South should be the fight of the free press of the nation, and particularly, every red-blooded individual of the South.

Keep up the good work, Jim, and we share your feeling that "Southern people have been pushed far enough."

We also believe that when the South begins its push, that the first push should be to take the many Mamie Bradleys (of the Till case) off the Federal pay-rolls while they are campaigning the nation scattering bitter hatred against the South.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Russell of Carlsbad, New Mexico after having made a trip to and from Alaska, to the Gulf Coast are now located at Paxington
where they expect to make their home. The people are fine and the fishing better than we have found, said Mrs. Russell.
They have traveled by trailer,
but plan on building a home
and really catch up on their fishing. Welcome folks!

L. S. Pahlman and son Billy,
had a good time out fishing Saturday. L. S. was learning to fly fish and Billy was doing the landing. A nice catch of green trout was caught.

Watson Johns says he is way behind in his fishing. He and

Uncle Tom Yerger is cus-

Bay High
The Bay High Band gave a benefit show at the A & G Theatre Thursday afternoon. The benefit was for the purpose of raising money for new uniforms.
The band played a heartfelt tune on the part of the band members. The two main features of the benefit were Stooges comedy play and preceded by a "Sweetie" cartoon.

There'll be plenty of banging
and booming next Tuesday, November 7, when the duck season opens. Rather hot weather for duck hunting, but the season has been extended this year so there should be some good shooting. Local hunters are using blinds, remaining ducks, etc.

Some of our local duck
hunters since the season
opened, Dr. Griffin, Bob Genin, Bob Genin, Jr., Pete Caruso,
Gerald Kennedy, James
Roux, August Rauxet, Joe Kern, Watson Johns and many others.

The trigger fingers are itching
just now.

Camps up near River, at Legion on the Bayou Home
are becoming more popular all the time. With people owning camps from Bayou La Lata, Columbia, Bogalusa, and Tylertown, weekends are affording these men wonderful outings with fishing, summer
and winter, hunting in the winter time. Government fishing and hunting tips are becoming more numerous than ever.

A party of a judge, lawyers
and business men from Jackson enjoyed a day trip last weekend. Didn't get their names—heard about it too late!

Uncle Tom Yerger is cus-
